

programs aimed at providing stability to those who are looking for ways to move beyond their current situations. Perhaps the most rewarding aspect of this job is watching individuals take advantage of these stability services and turn their lives around.”

Marnie Williams has been the Volunteer Coordinator at Attention Homes since October 2012. Prior to coming to Attention Homes, Marnie had her own Organizational Development company (Marnie Williams and Associate) and primarily worked with nonprofit organizations. Marnie and her family arrived in Boulder in 1988 and she feels fortunate to be a part of the Boulder community. For 17 years, Marnie worked in a rehabilitative body work called Trigger Point Myotherapy.

Volunteering was a part of Marnie’s family life growing up so working at Attention Homes was a perfect fit. She is delighted to be a part of the Attention Homes team and says of her work, “I love working with volunteers who so willingly give their time and energy to support youth in crisis. One of the favorite parts of my job is when I hear volunteers say, ‘I thought I came here to “help” but I got back more than I gave.’”

Valmont Community Presbyterian Church is a small, friendly church family committed to proclaiming and enacting the good news of Jesus Christ for this world. We are committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment where each person can experience the healing and transforming power of God's love made available to us through the work of Jesus and in the power of the Spirit. We gather in worship and study to prepare ourselves to serve in the community and the world. Through our communion with one another, we hope to support and equip each member for their unique call to love God and neighbor.

About our speakers

Jenny Langness is the Executive Director of Real Choices Pregnancy Care Centers of Boulder Valley, CO. She has been engaged in pro-life ministry off and on for over 30 years as a volunteer, advocate, speaker, fundraiser, and more currently in Center Administration. Before accepting her position with Real Choices, she served as the Executive Director of Alpha Center in Fort Collins, CO. Her work in the for-profit as well non-profit arenas has enabled her to develop expertise in the areas of organizational & staff development. She frequently consults with Centers all over the United States in these areas as well as in Campus & Community Outreach, Marketing, and Donor Development & Fundraising. She has been married to Mark for 32 years, has grown twin daughters, and loves life in Colorado.

Danielle Metcalf has been serving with Cru (Campus Crusade for Christ) at CU Boulder for the past 8 years. Cru is an international ministry that is passionate about reaching college students with the Gospel. She has had the opportunity to see the Lord transform the hearts and lives of college students at CU and around the world. Danielle would love to share more with you about her ministry and how you can partner with her in connecting college students with Jesus.

Lesley Jackson is the Executive Director of Coal Creek Meals on Wheels. She has a lifetime of experience in a variety of non-profits both here and in the United Kingdom. After moving to the USA she was hired by Evergreen Christian Outreach as Assistant Director and soon became the Executive Director, working with them for over 8 years. Subsequently she was hired as a consultant/facilitator for a food pantry partnership start-up along the 285 corridor. She believes passionately that everyone should have food on their table on a daily basis, and has worked to help eradicate hunger for the past 16 years.

Denise Bourg became a volunteer for Providence Network in Denver over 7 years ago, and has been the Development Director for the past 6 years.

“What I love the most about Providence Network, is seeing lives ‘changed from the inside out’ through Christ, community and the continuum of care at our homes.” Providence Network operates 4 homes ... two FirstStep homes (Providence House for men and women who are overcoming the obstacles of poverty, homelessness and addictions ... and Joy House for women and children escaping domestic violence) ... and two NextStep affordable housing apartment buildings for graduates of our FirstStep homes (Victory House with 17 apartments, and Clausen House with 23 apartments).

Nancy Miller has been a volunteer full time for Operation Christmas Child since September 2012. Prior to that she was involved for several years at her church in California.

“For me OCC is about providing the opportunity to reach children across the world to hear the Great News. Franklin Graham’s dream is for every child in the world to have a Christmas Shoebox. In doing this he is creating churches all over the world. The greatest majority of children that receive the Shoeboxes, do get to learn the Word, the Great News.”

Chad Molter has worked at the Boulder Shelter for the Homeless since 2009 and has been the Assistant Director of Programs for two years.

“Doing this work has been tremendously gratifying. I am humbled to be a part of an organization that has been providing basic, life-sustaining services to adults in our community for more than 30 years. Daily, I have the privilege of witnessing the effect that providing basic needs services in a dignified manner can have in the lives of many individuals. In addition to offering life sustaining winter emergency sheltering, the Boulder Shelter operates multiple
